

Do you have foreign language assistance?

---

Is the opera translated?

---

What is the dress code?

---

Are children allowed?

---

What if there is inclement weather?

---

What if I'm late to the performance?

---

Where can I eat?

---

What can I bring?

Although you may bring a coat and other personal items such as handbags or umbrellas, please do not bring bags, parcels or luggage to the Metropolitan Opera House. Please note that food and beverages are not permitted in the auditorium. Due to increased security measures, the Opera House will open 45 minutes prior to scheduled curtain times during the opera season, and 30 minutes prior to scheduled curtain times during the ballet season. Please come at your earliest convenience to avoid delays.

---

Is there a Coat Check?

---

What if I lose or find something?